We will consider how life emerged from primordial clay, so that it may observe and now speculate on its role in the universe;

We will look at our understanding of a divine spiritual being, with particular reference to creation.

The speakers:
David Tuke, BSc (Hons) Biochemistry and Philosophy
David Sullivan, M. Theol. Studies

There will be a panel to respond to questions following the talk and a light supper afterwards.

7.30pm, Saturday 16th March 2019, St Luke’s Anglican Church, 65 William Rd, Carrum Downs
