

ISCAST Vic Symposium, 7 September 2019

Theological Approaches to Wicked Problems in a Secular Society

Venue:

East Camberwell Baptist Church, cnr Hunter and Highfield Roads, Camberwell.

Program:

8:30	Registration
9:00:	Opening and Welcome	Murray Hogg
9:15:	Wicked Problems: A personal and painful journey.	Richard Gijbers
9:45	Plenary Session (Interactive):- Bushfires in Victoria, a worked example	Andrew Wilson
10:45	Morning Tea
	Parallel Sessions
11:10	Session 1
	Chair: Philippa Thomson	Chair:
	Not Enough Butter, Too Much Bread: Challenges in Resource Allocation. Michael Smith	Wicked Problems, Wickedness and Wisdom: A Theology for the Anthropocene: Mick Pope
11:50	Session 2
	The Pastoral Care for those Engaging in Wicked problems: Murray Hogg	Wicked problems are Hindered by Anti-Science Thinking: John Pilbrow
12:30	Lunch
1:10	Session 3
	The Roll out of Modern Communications Technologies as a Wicked problem: What a Christian Perspective Can Add to Help Find Workable Solutions: Andrew Wood	Unscrambling Wicked problems, Theologically and Practically: Bill Walker
1:50	Plenary Sessions:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Christians working with Wicked Problems: Being as Wise as Serpents... Theological Reflections on Wicked Problems: Going Beyond Personal Piety and Towards Understanding 	Peter and Sue Clout Charles Sherlock
3:00	Tea break
3:10	Pulling the threads together: What Should We Then Do? Do Christians have anything to offer a secular society and how should we offer it?	Alan Gijbers
3:50	Wrap Up, Goodbye and Close	Murray Hogg